CHAPTER 1

Welcome to the Truth

I have been one of God's people all my life but not always the strongest Christian. So many things happen in ones life and it is not until I lost it all that I fully turned to Jesus. I have always known something was going to happen when I turned 33 years old. I was not sure what it was or why I felt like that, but the Lord had always shown me in my life the number 33, whether that had been with people, relationships or on the time clock. It had been a warning sign that I did not listen to and did not understand.

When I turned 33 I was fearful of what it would bring. Instead of this number bringing me something negative, it brought me closer to the Lord Jesus. I was fully woken up by the Holy Spirit and I started listening to who I was and who I wanted to be, and that is a true child of God. I was enlightened by our Father in heaven and wanted to show others the tremendous power of God.

I also truly believe that we are living in the last days on earth and wanted to share some of the amazing things I've learnt. Think of this as a study guide or companion to the Bible.

As I write this book, the biblical rapture to take the Christians to heaven has not yet happened but it is very close. The spiritual enlightenment that God gives to his people is for a reason. That reason sometimes is because the end of good and evil will soon be over. God will destroy his enemy and will win in the end, but the road to that victory is long and dark.

God declared the end from the beginning and that's part of what I will show you here when we step back in time through the Bible. He is returning very soon. Let's read that sentence again. He is returning very soon. Pray for your fellow humans and stay spiritually ready for our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Isaiah 46:9-11

Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me,

10

Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

11

Calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it.

CHAPTER 2

There is Hope

From the creation of the earth 6020 years ago people have always known the existence of God and heavens above. In all of human history God has spoken to his people and guided them through life's trials and tribulations. Most people miss out on what God is telling them while others may not even want to know.

When you are born again and receive the holy spirit, it is an acknowledgement and enlightenment that God has chosen you to be in his book of life. To receive salvation through Jesus, is not to be taken for granted. God has named his people from the beginning of time and knows you better than you know yourself.

Our Lord and saviour created this world for us and gave us life and without him we would not exist but many organisations and governments around the world have destroyed the spiritual awareness of God and his creation. It is at this point today where young people are angry that their parents did not ask their permission to be born. This obviously makes no sense because you can not ask permission for someone that has not even been conceived yet. This is happening all around the world with young kids because they are being told in a subliminal way that there is no hope for the future. There is no hope for true love, just a lustful, sinister relationship from someone who is just looking for a good time. This is one of the many lies from Satan to deceive people. Anything from movies, tv, books, media, fashion, education and society in general. They are training peoples brains to think the way they want you to think. This does not include the one true God. Even our King James Bible is not 100% true of the original texts. Throughout this book I will be referencing Bible verses from the King James because it is about 90% of the original texts.

Let me explain.

Some of the first translations of the Bible are from a man by the name of William Tyndale. His translation went on to be completed by John Rogers. These are the Tyndale Bible and the Matthew Bible. Tyndale could only translate the New Testament and some of the Old Testament before he was put to death for believing in Jesus Christ. John Rogers went on to finish his work under the name Thomas Matthew. This is why it is called the Matthew Bible.

The Bible has a lot more of the original texts from Hebrew, Greek and Aramaic. I will reference in my book when words have been changed from the original text and how it can possibly impact the meaning of verses in the King James version.

Moving forward.

When you think back to being a kid and looking at the stars in space or watching cartoons on TV did it ever occur to you that we are all part of a bigger system that God made for us? I know I didn't think that when I was younger.

There is a spiritual darkness that is all around us that blocks us from seeing the truth. It is impossible to be able to just see it or know it from a human prospective but with God and the holy spirit all things are possible. It is like trying to explain to someone that there is a creature or animal right in front of them that is trying to hurt them, and you can see it but they cannot. How do you tell somebody they need the holy spirit to see this creature before it kills them? They need God in their lives. Just like in Rev 22:17, "let him take the water of life freely", this means we have free will and God wants us to CHOOSE him and not the path of destruction.

When I found myself starting to listen to who I really was and who I wanted to be, a child of God, I was enlightened by our Father in heaven and wanted to show others the power of God and how beautiful he is. The spiritual enlightenment that God gives to his people is for a reason. We are living in the last days on earth, whether you want to believe it or not. As I said earlier, the rapture to take Christians to heaven has not yet happened but it is very close. We will take a look at that a bit later, but people right now need to change their hearts and accept Christ.

In life there are only two roads to take. One is the road of destruction, greed, lust, and sin. It travels to a dark place that one cannot come back from. The evil there will consume you in more ways than you can ever begin to imagine. It is a fiery, black place that no one should ever go to but people unfortunately will. The second road leads to heaven. A place filled with the presence and everlasting love of God. It sounds peaceful just saying those words. God created a heaven for his people, his children and for those to stand with him in his kingdom. The stairway to heaven is pure, great and its riches and beauty will be unlike anything we have ever known or seen here on earth.

The kingdom of the heavens will be a place of which only God's chosen people will live with him. The colours there will be ones that we do not even know of. Creatures and animals we have not yet seen. The angels and all living spirits will be together in peace and unity.

There is no sin there nor do they have fear of evil things for God's kingdom has no darkness. Heaven is beautiful and perfect. God created it to be perfect for his people. The ones who choose not to believe in God's word will not see this place. They will not be called by Jesus when we see him in the clouds, but if you change your hearts and let the Holy Spirit in, you will be standing with Jesus on the golden road in heaven. The powers that be in our society today have very slowly demolished peoples love for one another and even the ability to help out our fellow humans.

If you know about history you would know that back in the 1950s people didn't even need to lock their door when they left the house. Men were called men and women were called women. 70 years later people aren't even safe being out in some neighbourhoods and men want to be called women and women called men. The other side of this is some people now want to be identified as whatever they want.

Now I believe you can be what ever you want to be in this world, but there is a big difference between somebody famous, rich or a great pastor then walking around calling yourself some of these names listed here.

People now identify as:

Binary, Non-binary, Genderfluid, Neutrois and Maverique, just to name a few. Some people even identify as a dog or some type of animal. Yes folks, they dress up in small animal outfits and let their partner treat them like a dog, cat or any type of house pet. These people go outside to do their business and they even eat out of a bowl on the ground. This is the type of world we are living in today and it is changing very fast. This is why I talk about a spiritual blindness and that people cannot see what's happening. Many things that are wrong are becoming right, and right is already wrong. It is the upside down world and when the Bible talks about the world changing upside in a day, it's hard not think that it could mean metaphorically and spiritual.

CHAPTER 3

God's Timeline

Before we get into too much heavy stuff let's go back in time a little and first look at the timeline of Jesus' birth and the many miracles throughout his life.

This section will give you vital information and dates for prophecies and future events of the tribulation period.

Throughout the centuries, scholars, pastors, evangelists and writers have all been studying the Bible and it's scriptures to determine many unanswered questions. Here I will answer some of those questions and hopefully, God willing, bring you closer to knowing our Lord and saviour Jesus Christ.

Let us first look at what types of calendars there are and which was in the calendar God used to determine all these prophecies. When we look at scripture in the Bible we'll find some very important dates and times. In Exodus 12:1-11 we see that the Lord is explaining to Moses and Aaron his brother what they shall do on the first month of the year and what shall be the works they perform for the Lord. Verse two the Lord says, "This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you."

But what month is that you ask? Well if we go to verse eleven we see again the Lord still talking with Moses and Aaron about the feast they must do for God. It says at the end of verse eleven, "It is the Lord's Passover."

This is the month of Abib which was later called Nisan. Deuteronomy 16:1, "Observe the month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night."

To clarify this month and its name change, turn to the book of Esther and see that the first month is now the month of Nisan. In Esther 3:7, we can clearly see the first and last months.

"In the first month, that is, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Human from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar."

Nisan is the first month of the year and Adar is the twelfth and last month of the year.

There are however leap years that occur every 3 years on the Jewish cycle depending on the phase of the moon. The leap year happens 7 times in a 19 year period on the Jewish calendar. Most of the world today use the solar year calendar which adds a day in February every 4 years. In Israel most of the Jewish people use the lunar calendar which adds an extra month every 3 years. Because there is an extra 11 days from the solar cycle to the lunar cycle this is why we have leap years. So where did the leap years start? It has been said from many people that study the bible, that Joshua and Isaiah had something to do with the leap year cycle.

In Joshua 10:12-14 he spoke to the Lord saying,
“In the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gileon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon.”

In verse 13 it reads, “And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. So the sun stood still in the mist of heaven, and hasted not to go down about the whole day.”

Also in 2 Kings 20:11 we can see that time went backwards ten degrees. Hezekiah the king of Judah was sick and the prophet Isaiah prayed to the Lord for Hezekiah to be healed.

“And Isaiah the prophet cried unto the Lord: and he brought the shadow ten degrees backwards, by which it had gone down in the mail of Ahaz.”

The father of Hezekiah, Ahaz had made a sun dial to determine the time of day from the sun. The Lord caused the day to move back in time for the life of Hezekiah.

These are two examples of why people believe that a leap year comes from historical times of the Bible. It has not been proven nor denied scientifically that these two examples are the cause of a leap year but it certainly puts into perspective the power of the one true God.

That being said let's run through the Jewish months of the year and we will compare them to what we now know as the Gregorian calendar months.

There are two types of Jewish calendars. The first is the Judea calendar which is used throughout scripture, and the new Jewish calendar which the Jews use today. They start their new year on Tishrei which is Sep/Oct but that is not what the Bible says is the first month.

Have a look.

Judaism Calendar:

Spring Time.

Nisan - Mar/Apr

Iyyar - Apr/May

Sivan - May/Jun

Summer Time.

Tammuz - Jun/Jul

Av - Jul/Aug

Elul - Aug/Sep

Fall.

Tishrei - Sep/Oct

Cheshvan - Oct/Nov

Kislev - Nov/Dec

Winter.

Tevet - Dec/Jan

Shevat - Jan/Feb

Adar - Feb/Mar

This is the timeline God is working off in the Bible as I have shown you above but here are just a few more references of scripture that show Nisan is the first month of the year:

Exodus 23:14-17

Leviticus 23:5

2 Chronicles 35:1-2, 7

Ezra 6:9

Esther 3:7

Ezekiel 45:21

Zechariah 1:7

Matthew 26:17

Mark 14:12

Let's now look at the names of months in the Gregorian calendar created by the Roman Catholics. I will also reference the names of previous Roman kings and their false gods that each month is named after.

Gregorian calendar:

January - The ancient Roman god Janus

February - After the Latin term februa, a ritual performed on a full moon

March - This comes from Martius, Mars, the Roman god of war

April - The name in Latin is Aprillis, the goddess of Venus

May - In Latin mean Maius, the Greek goddess Maia

June - The Roman goddess Juno and the wife of deity Jupiter

July - Named after Julius Caesar

August - Augustus was a Roman Emperor in 27 BC to 14 AD

September - Originally the seventh of 10 months in 750 BC

October - In Latin means eight

November - Originated from the Latin name nine in the ancient Roman calendar

December - The name is from the Latin word meaning ten

This is to show you how different things are from the Jewish calendar to the now globally used Gregorian calendar.

You may be wondering why I have told you all of this and what it is for. Everything I've put in this book will have a purpose and I will be referencing it often so please keep that in mind.

CHAPTER 4

Real Birth Date of Jesus

So now that we know what timeline God is using and we have a start and finish point from the scriptures and the Judaism calendar, let's get into some of the timeline of Jesus.

The prophecy of Jesus' birth was many years before anyone knew that a Messiah would come along. In the books of Micah and Isaiah we see that a new king will be born of the Jews and will start a new covenant with his people.

Around 550 years before Jesus was born, the prophet Isaiah told us that son would be born from a virgin.

Isaiah 9:6

"For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace."

Isaiah 7:14

"Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign, Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel."

In the book of Micah we also see there shall be a ruler from God.

Micah 5:2

"But you, Bethlehem, Ephrathah, though you are little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of you shall come forth to Me the One to be Ruler in Israel, whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting."

So when is the exact birth date of Jesus you ask? We will have to work backwards a little in the Bible to determine this date because most REAL records are blocked by the Roman church that show the exact date but we can still find Jesus' birth from the scriptures, it just takes a little more investigating.

First of all let's look at the book of Daniel. I'm sure a lot of you have read or heard of the 70 week prophecy of Daniel and the visions he was shown by the angel Gabriel. The visions in Daniel chapter 8 are prophecies that have already come to pass. It speaks of a king that will rise up out of Grecia, which is Greece, and that king was Alexander the Great. For us today in 2020 this is our history but for Daniel in 550 BC he was not sure of what this vision meant but he documented all that he saw.

In chapter 9 we see that he was spoken to again in a vision by the angel Gabriel.

24

Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25

Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26

And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

There is a lot to take in and try to break down so let's do a some math and find out what this prophecy means.

The angel Gabriel says 70 weeks are determined by thy people, so we do the following:

70 weeks x 7 days in a week = 490 weeks, which is 490 years. When weeks or days are spoken of in the Bible in most cases it implies years. It may take a little working out but you can see that throughout scripture.

$$70 \times 7 = 490$$

$$7 \times 7 = 49$$

$$62 \times 7 = 434$$

$$434 + 49 = 483 \text{ years fulfilled by Jesus}$$

$$490 - 483 = 7 \text{ years for the Tribulation}$$

This here is where we collect the information on the 7 year tribulation period because there is still one week remaining that has not yet been fulfilled but it will be very soon.

In verse 25 the angel speaks about the coming of the Messiah from the restoration of Jerusalem. This verse means that between the restoring of the holy city to the time of the Messiah it will be 483 years.

So how do we know when this timeline is?

I'll show you.

In the book of Ezra, we find some very interesting things. Remember this is all to find when Jesus was born and if we find when he was baptized we will find his birth. This is also very important to the time of Jesus' second coming.

Ezra 7:11-28

11

Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel.

12

Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, and at such a time.

13

I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14

Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thine hand;

15

And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem,

16

And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem:

17

That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.

18

And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will of your God.

19

The vessels also that are given thee for the service of the house of thy God, those deliver thou before the God of Jerusalem.

20

And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house.

21

And I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily,

22

Unto an hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much.

23

Whatsoever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons?

24

Also we certify you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them.

25

And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not.

26

And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

27

Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem:

28

And hath extended mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

In verse 13 Artaxerxes makes a decree to rebuild Jerusalem. This is the starting point of the 483 years from the prophet Daniel. In the book of Nehemiah 2:1-20 we also see that he travels to help restore and rebuild Jerusalem.

Nehemiah 2:1-20

And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence.

Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid,

And said unto the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it.

And the king said unto me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah;

8

And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10

When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11

So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12

And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13

And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14

Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15

Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16

And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17

Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18

Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

If we look at a little history and find when the decree was put in place by King Artaxerxes we will find when Jesus was baptised. After searching many hours and looking for the time Artaxerxes put this decree into place I found an overwhelming amount of documented history and when the King first ordered it.

In the year 457 BC King Artaxerxes said to Ezra, "I make a decree."

This is our starting year of the 483 years spoken by the prophet Daniel.

When we calculate from minus 457 BC plus 483 years we get to the year 27 AD. If you do this on your calculator it will be a year off because it does not count from 1 BC through to 1 AD.

We know from this that it is clear evidence that Jesus was baptized in the year 27 AD.

If you're still asking how do we know for sure this is the year Jesus was baptised to become the Messiah, let's take a look at the book of Luke.

There is a lot of controversy and division about Luke 3:1 and the fifteenth year reign of Tiberius Caesar.

Luke 3:1-22

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.

And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins;

As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10

And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11

He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12

Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13

And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14

And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages.

15

And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not;

16

John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire:

17

Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18

And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19

But Herod the tetrarch, being reprov'd by him for Herodias his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,

20

Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

21

Now when all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22

And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

If you look on the internet today you can easily find that Tiberius was Emperor from 14 AD to 37 AD. This is not exactly accurate. After returning from Germania in 12 AD, Tiberius was made proconsular to Augustus which made him pro-princeps with Augustus.

Recorded history shows us that Augustus was sick and could not continue the duty as Emperor so he gave Tiberius the power to rule as Emperor without actually being the Emperor just yet. Gaius Suetonius Tranquillus also documented that Tiberius was given the declaration of co-princeps that took place in 12 AD. It was not until 14 AD that Tiberius was officially anointed as Caesar after Augustus passed away. In the book of Luke he would have documented this as the starting point of the fifteenth year of Tiberius Caesar.

Back to Luke 3:1 we see that in the fifteenth year Jesus was baptised as the Messiah and went on to start his church.

If we go from 12 AD and count 15 years for the fifteenth reign of Tiberius we come to 27 AD. The year we previously looked at before.

Jesus was baptised when he was just over 30 years of age in the month of either Elul/Aug/Sep or at the start of Tishrei in Sep/Oct.

Now that we have the baptism of Jesus let's go back in time 30 years and find his birth.

When we calculate from 27 AD backwards just over 30 years we come to the month of Sivan/May/Jun 4 BC. Recall what I said earlier about how the calculator does not count from 1 BC through 0 to 1 AD so you need to add that on. A calculator will say it is 3 BC but really it is 4 BC, the birth of Jesus. Also remember we are using God's timeline calendar here from Nisan to Adar. Many preachers, scholars and pastors will not go through this with you and reveal the true birth date of Jesus, but as long as you read your Bible you can find everything you need to know about our Lord.

We will take another look at the book of Luke and I will show you some very interesting things that most people don't realise. I know I didn't at first, but when you see it, it's like seeing the light in a dark tunnel. To show you that Jesus was born in late spring time (Sivan/May/Jun), is to observe how the farmers look after their sheep and lambs. Yes, I know you might be thinking what is he talking about, how does this tell me anything? I'm going to explain.

On the festival of Passover on Nisan/Mar/Apr each man with his flock would come to the holy city to offer a sacrifice. The lamb needs to be of the first year old according to Exodus, Numbers and many other books in the Bible.

Exodus 12:2-6.

This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house:

And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take it according to the number of the souls; every man according to his eating shall make your count for the lamb.

Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep, or from the goats:

And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it in the evening.

Numbers 9:1-4

And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season.

In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it.

And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

The Lord taught his people the importance of this festival and what to do each year. In Luke chapter 2 we read that when Jesus was being born there were men in the fields with their flock looking after their sheep.

Luke 2:6-11

And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10

And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11

For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

One of the few times of the year when the Shepards would be out in the fields at night with their flock would be in late spring time when they needed to look after the new born lambs. Just like Jesus was born in the spring time, he is the Lamb of God.

Here are some Bible verses about the Lamb of God:

John 1:29

John1:36

Revelation 5:6

Revelation 5:12

Revelation 6:1

Revelation 21:27

You see the Shepards would take a Lamb to passover that was born the previous year. God says in Exodus 12:5, "Your Lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year." The Shepards would take their Lamb for Passover than return home to look after new born lambs in late spring time.

Isn't that just amazing to discover and learn about how God works and the timeline he lays out for us to see in scripture?

To prove this even further we will look at the birth of John the Baptist and then we can also find the birth of Jesus.

CHAPTER 5

Proof from John the Baptist

There are few ways to find the birth of John the Baptist and one of those ways is in the book of Luke. We will also reference some of the book of Matthew but Luke has a lot more detail in his writings. Many people always go to find the date of when King Herod died to try and find the birth of Jesus or the birth of John the Baptist, but this is a mistake because there is quite a lot of disinformation online and this type of research needs to be done through reading the Bible.

In Luke 2:1-80 we find most of the scriptures we need to know when John the Baptist was born. I will only put here the scriptures that are most relevant to this topic but I encourage you to read through all of chapter one because it is a very good chapter in Luke. John the Baptist parents were Zacharias and Elisabeth.

Luke chapter 1 verses:

And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25

Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

26

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,

27

To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28

And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29

And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30

And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31

And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

34

Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35

And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

36

And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37

For with God nothing shall be impossible.

39

And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda;

40

And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41

And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42

And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

56

And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57

Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

Confused yet? I hope not. I have tried to lay this out as simply as I can so everybody can follow it with ease.

There is a lot of information in this chapter to take in that took many hours of research. I will break all of it down and explain it the best I can.

In verse 24 we read that Elisabeth hid herself for five months. Where in the year is this five months? In verse 26 the angel Gabriel sent from God to Mary in the sixth month. Notice how it says, "In the sixth month," not six months later or six months time. It says IN the sixth month which is the month of Elul/Aug/Sep. This means that John the Baptist was conceived in the first month of Nisan/Mar/Apr and Jesus was conceived in the month of Elul/Aug/Sep.

Now we can find when they were both born.

When we look at the months mentioned in these verses we can see the date when John the Baptist was born. When the angel Gabriel goes to speak with Mary, he says that she will conceive and bare a son. He goes on to say that Mary's cousin Elisabeth is also with child in her sixth month of pregnancy. When we look at verse 56 we find that Mary stayed with them three months and then returned home. She arrived at Elisabeth's house in the sixth month, the month of Elul/Aug/Sep and left three months later in the month of Kislev/Nov/Dec when John was born.

Now let's go back to our calendar for a moment here. John the Baptist was conceived in the first month, Nisan/Mar/Apr. If we add six months for the pregnancy to the date for when Mary conceives Jesus we will be at the month of Elul/Aug/Sep. We then add three months more and John is born in the month of Kislev/Nov/Dec. We then need to start from Mary's conception and go forward nine months for Mary's pregnancy, we will be in the month of Sivan/May/Jun. This is when Jesus was born.

John the Baptist was born on the first of Kislev and then circumcised on the eighth of Kislev 5 BC. Circumcision of Hebrews is in Genesis 17:12.

Jesus Christ was born on Sivan 4 BC. Somewhere from the fifteenth of May to the fifteenth of June.

In Luke chapter 2 there is a decree that goes out to the people from Caesar Augustus that the world should be taxed and that everyone needs to go back to their home town and pay this tax. After many hours and days of research trying to find when this tax decree was put in place by Augustus I found that the real documentation for this had been blocked and the only things I found were not accurate to history records. To know this bit of vital information you would need access to the Roman church records which are kept in a locked vault underground. Without this small part of information we cannot know the exact date of Jesus' birth but we have narrowed it down quite a lot.

I personally believe that he was born on the sometime in the middle of Sivan, around the time of the Shavu'ot feast days. This holiday is to commemorate the anniversary of the day God gave the Torah to the Israelite nation, which also means "weeks", the festival of weeks.

In Mark 1:15 Jesus said after he was baptised, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand." I believe this to mean that the time is fulfilled from the prophet Daniel's vision of the 483 weeks but also that Jesus was born on the holiday of weeks and the time is fulfilled.

For hundreds of years and even today people try to link the death of King Herod to the birth of Jesus. This is a very misunderstood and misguided path. If we look at the books of Matthew and Luke we can see a big difference in attention to detail to the birth of Jesus.

Matthew 1:24-25

24

Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25

And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

Matthew 2:1-3

Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews? for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

Luke 2:7-8

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

In Matthew he speaks of wise men that came to King Herod seeking the new king but in the book of Luke he talks about Shepards in the field with their flock. Many people think that they are the same men that come to see Jesus but they are not. The wise men came to Jerusalem to speak to King Herod about the star they saw in the sky and the Shepards were in the country fields at the time the angel spoke with them. Both these two sets of men came to see the birth of Jesus the night he was born.

To complicate this further we need to look at the death of King Herod because it is said by 98% of writers and scholars that Herod died in 4 BC the same year Jesus was born but this is not true. We read in Matthew 2:16 that Herod put out an order that all the babies two years old and under should be put to death according to the time when he first enquired the wise men. Why would he say two years if Jesus was born the same year?

Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

Matthew 2:16

Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

We know for a fact that Jesus was baptised in 27 AD at 30 years of age, so this confirms that he was born in 4 BC. Therefore King Herod did not die in 4 BC and I will show you that here. For the last 1993 years the powers that be have tried to cover up the timeline of Jesus and his real birth date. They cover up a number of real history records and change this to fit an agenda. According to writers like Paul R. Finch, Jack Finegan and Paul Keresztes just to name a few, all have documented that King Herod did not die in 4 BC but rather 2 or 1 BC. King Herod had much political troubles in 4 BC because he had a misunderstanding with Augustus, and Herod was removed from the title as "Caesars friend." King Herod's own sons Archelaus and Philip, documented that their reign started in Judea at 4 BC when they were made royal authority during Herod's lifetime.

To decode this in simpler terms we see in Mathew 2:16 after the birth of Jesus, that King Herod put out the order to kill the young babies two years and under according to the time he first enquired of the wise men. Therefore King Herod did not die in 4 BC the years he first heard about Jesus and spoke to the wise men because that was two years too early to the order he gave to kill the young born babies. According to scripture this means that King Herod would've died somewhere between 2 BC and 1 BC.

Much debate has been spoken of this topic and many arguments over when King Herod passed away but I hope this clears out the fog for people out there wondering about this timeline.

Either way we look at it Jesus was born in the month of Sivan/May/Jun 4 BC and that's pretty cool to discover.

CHAPTER 6

When was Jesus Crucified

Let's now move on to some of the more heavier topics about the Bible, and the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

After Jesus was baptised in the Jordan River by John the Baptist, he spent forty days and forty nights in the wilderness. Satan, the fallen angel, tempted Jesus in choosing him over God almighty but the power of the Holy Spirit was too strong for the forces of evil. Jesus left the desert after the forty days fully enlightened with God's grace. He started looking for God's chosen people as his 12 disciples to preach the new covenant of God.

Simon (Peter)
James
John
Andrew
Bartholomew (Nathanael)
James
Jude (Thaddaeus)
Matthew
Philip
Simon
Thomas
Judas the (betrayer)

The ministry of the good news had begun and they travelled around the cities and towns preaching the word of God.

Jesus performed a number of miracles and healings on people in three and a half years, even turning water into wine and walking on water, just to name a few. Here is a list of the many miracles performed by Jesus:

Water into Wine

John 2:1-11

Walking on Water

Matthew 14:25

Mark 6:47-50

John 6:19

Raising Lazarus from the dead

John 11:43-45

Draught of fish

Luke 5:1-10

Stilling the storm

Matthew 8:26

Mark 4:39

Luke 8:22-25

Cleansing a Leper

Matthew 8:1-3

Mark 1:40-44

Luke 5:12-14

In 31 AD, just before the Passover, Judas was possessed by Satan himself and went to the high priest and betrayed Jesus.

Luke 22:3-4

Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

Upon his arrest in secret of the night before Passover by order of the high priests, Jesus was brought before the Roman Governor Pontius Pilate after some savage beatings. He was given further beatings and brutal lashes to his body. Jesus was then trialed and found unlawfully guilty by the masses. He was made to carry a large and heavy wooden cross to the top of the hill of Mount Calvary outside the city walls of Jerusalem.

Luke 23:33

33

And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

Jesus was then nailed to a cross and left to die in front of his family and some of the disciples. The Jewish priests and leaders convicted Jesus under the law of blasphemy and claiming to be the Son of God. This took place on a Wednesday 31 AD and he was then raised from the dead on the third day of Passover, (Sabbath day) 31 AD.

Let me show you how I got to the day of Wednesday.

Investigating these scriptures of the Bible can get very confusing. We will need to go through a few different verses to show you how Jesus was crucified on a Wednesday, and rose again on the Saturday, the third day.

These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD'S passover.

And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8

But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

Leviticus 16:29-31

29

And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you:

30

For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sins before the LORD.

31

It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, by a statute for ever.

Exodus 16:23

And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

John 19:31

31

The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

These scriptures talk about the Holy Sabbaths (Holy Convocations) that happen in the spring and also the fall. Jesus was crucified Wednesday on the Holy Sabbath. John spoke of a Sabbath day being a high day, which is a Holy Sabbath day.

In Luke and Mark we see there was preparation again for the Sabbath which would be the seventh day, Saturday.

Mark 15:42-43

42

And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43

Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

Mark 16:1-4

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

Luke 23:50-56

50

And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51

(The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52

This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53

And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54

And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55

And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56

And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

All of these verses here show that the women were to prepare spices for the Sabbath day which is a Saturday and that they would go to see the body of Jesus in the tomb on the Sabbath, but they found it empty because he was raised from the dead. I hope you're following and paying attention because now the scriptures throw us a slight curve ball.

There were two Sabbaths in the week of Jesus' crucifixion.

Jesus was crucified Wednesday on the Holy Sabbath. In the books of Luke and Mark there was preparation again for the Sabbath which would be the seventh day, Saturday, when Jesus was raised from the dead. It was not just three days later that Jesus was raised from the dead but it was also the third day of Passover, in the new year.

I didn't say this would be easy to follow. God only knows it was tough for even myself to remember all this information, but I hope this chapter shines some light on the timeline of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 8

The Spirit World Around Us

I wanted to talk now about where do the dead go in the after life. This is topic I have looked into for many reasons. One of these is because I have lost people close to me and really wanted to know that they are in heaven or if they are in a place like it. The scriptures do show us that there are different forms of the spirit world and what happens when we die but here I will give you some interesting verses about where the Old Testament saints are, where the New Testament people are, and what will happen to people in the tribulation.

From the time of Adam to the time of Jesus, all the saints of God who died and were believers went into the spirit world of Hades. It is divided into two realms: a place of comfort called paradise or Abraham's bosom, and the other a place where people were tormented for their iniquities.

19

There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20

And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,

21

And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22

And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23

And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24

And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25

But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26

And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

43

And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44

And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

When we read the words in these verses there are a number of things to point out. The verses show us that the rich man who did not help anyone was now in a place of fiery flames being tormented and was trying to ask for help. Lazarus who was once in the grave of Abraham's bosom was then brought back to life. Notice in verse 26 of Luke 16 that it reads, "Between us and you there is a great gulf fixed." Not any one of this world or their world can cross that gulf which implies an area of which only God has power over.

Jesus was the first raised from the dead to ascend up to heaven and upon his death the saints of God, from the Old Testament, arose out of the grave from Abraham's bosom to see the holy city and go up to the kingdom of God to everlasting life in heaven. In the book of Daniel and Matthew they speak about two types of people that will awake from the earth.

And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Matthew 27:52-53

52

And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

53

And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

We see in the books of Luke and also in John that Jesus spoke of a resurrection of the just and the resurrection of the damned.

Luke 14:14

14

And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

John 5:29

29

And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

Throughout all these scriptures it implies there are two main resurrections of people taking place in various stages. Some of the first that arose from the graves were the saints of Jerusalem just after Jesus had risen clearly seen in the book of Matthew. We also read in Corinthians that Jesus was the first fruits of the resurrected.

1 Corinthians 15:20

But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

The first are the people who are dead in Christ right now who will be raised up at the rapture with God's people and taken to heaven. The second are the ones at the end of the tribulation who will be judged according to their works and ways on earth.

The subject is heavily debated on because many people believe that the dead will be raised up at the end of all things when Jesus returns to earth at his second coming. One thing is certain and that is God's chosen people will be called up to heaven and live with him in his kingdom, forever.

1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

16

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

I personally believe that the time from when Jesus was raised from the dead until the time of the rapture, which is the start of the tribulation, is all part of the first resurrection of God's people.

We who are alive and remain will meet them in the clouds at the rapture and we will be gathered together with the Lord into heaven. In the seven year tribulation period, people will still be able to be saved and enter into the kingdom of heaven, but I believe it will be a very, very hard time, and one that has not been seen or experienced on earth before.

People must not follow the system the world has told them to follow, and in the seven year tribulation period they absolutely need to stay close to God and Jesus Christ.

Matthew 10:22

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.

Jesus spoke of enduring to the end. This is not to say you can go do what you want and keep sinning and doing wrong but he means that if you endure to the end without taking the mark of the beast or following the evil order of the world, you will have everlasting life in God's kingdom.

If you take the mark of the beast or follow evil in the last seven years, you will not be part of that resurrection. For the people who have taken the mark and followed the Antichrist will not be raised from the dead up to heaven but they will be brought before God at the judgement seat according to what they have done here on earth. Revelation 20 talks about the second death has no power.

But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

Revelation 20:12-15

12

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

14

And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

15

And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

God reveals to us through the scriptures everything we need. All we have to do is listen and be aware of his teachings. The Bible is the greatest book ever written, and despite what the world says, learning and discovering things in the Bible can be very exciting. Many things that were written in this book were written thousands of years ago and that have now predicted the future.

When we read these Bible verses it is hard to deny the fact that there are different realms of the spirit world out there. In the beginning God created heaven and earth but that does not mean that he didn't keep creating as time went on for his people. Scientists say that the universe is expanding at a faster rate than 100 years ago. If we think back to Noah's day 5000 years ago, then we would have a lot of mass expansion going on from our creator. In many books of the Bible they talk about different areas of heaven and in the stars.

Genesis 2:4

These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

Deuteronomy 10:14

14

Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the LORD'S thy God, the earth also, with all that therein is.

2 Corinthians 12:2

I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven.

Hebrews 7:26

For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens

When I read through my Bible and see all these scriptures it is quite clear that God created many forms of worlds and many different uses for them. My thoughts of these different realms are that the third heaven is where God's temple is with the very elect angels and elders. It is where Jesus went when he ascended to heaven. The second heaven is not specially mentioned in the Bible but when we look at all this information, it's possible that it would be where the next level of God's people dwell. This would be in the constellations of space.

For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine.

We would then interpret the first heaven to be in the realm of earth's atmosphere.

Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and opened the doors of heaven,

For many years scientists have been working to find other realms and dimensions that are possible to access. With research from companies like CERN they are edging closer to finding some of these other worlds. They spend all their lives searching and studying to find new ways to see the fourth or fifth dimension when all they needed to do was read the Bible and they would know. The problem nowadays is that scientists try to play God and change what God made for us, but that will not continue for much longer and we will explore that further in this book.

To discover that there are three heavens mentioned in the Bible is pretty amazing. When we finally see God's kingdom and his universe of creation, we will all marvel at his great work and want to praise him in everlasting life.

CHAPTER 9

The Son of God

In this chapter we will be taking a look at the possibility of Jesus existing before he was born on the earth. This is another question that has been asked for centuries and it is a very divided topic but I will show you from the word of God in the scriptures that Jesus did exist before he was born from Mary and even before the foundations of the earth. Biblical scholars have spoken of this theory and say that Jesus was the one who created all things and God the Father was the designer. There will be scripture here based on the Old Testament and the New Testament with a third theory based on the Holy Trinity. Most of us do know of the three spirits of God but just incase you don't I will explain a little about it here.

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are all one with God but three different spirits. Much like we as humans have a body, a soul and a spirit, we are all one together. God made us with all three but in one form. When we die our soul and spirit will stay together and God will give us new bodily forms so we will still be our own trinity of three. Just like God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are three but one at the same. The only difference is that God has many forms of his spirit and he can be everywhere all at the same time. He can change and move to anyone or anything because he is everything that is in all things. Knowing that God is with us can be very hard to believe but we know from the Bible that his word is truth and truth is God.

I will now show you the proof of Jesus pre-existence before he was born on earth. These verses in the Bible can be read with different interpretations and meanings but one has to acknowledge that this shines a whole new light upon the word of God.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

The same was in the beginning with God.

John 1:14

14

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

Hebrews 1:2

Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;

Reading these verses it seems pretty clear that Jesus was with God almighty in the beginning and became flesh for us. Jesus was the word and the word became flesh that will live forever. You can interpret these verses plainly how they sound but when you dig a bit deeper and read in Hebrews that the Son, who also made the worlds, it's not hard to see that Jesus was the creator. As I've said previously, many biblical scholars say that Jesus created everything and God was the designer. For example, you have two men standing on a block of land. One was an architect and the other was a builder. The architect designed all the plans, all the parts needed and made everything ready to be put into place for the right time to start construction. The builder would then be given all the designs and blueprints to start the creation of a new place.

This idea from world scholars is not far fetched because when Jesus was on the earth, he was a carpenter who built wooden furniture. He was an excellent craftsman and worked very hard at it.

I will now show some other Bible verses that tell us that the pre-existence of Jesus is true.

I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

Galatians 4:4

But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

Colossians 1:14-17

14

In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:

15

Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature:

16

For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:

17

And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

The pre-existence of Jesus is a doctrine that should be taught among the churches today and through the world, but sadly it is not. We are witnessing a slow death of the real teachings of Jesus throughout the world today and many do not even know of his pre-existence. Some parts of the world are much worse than others such as China and Korea.

They persecute and even kill whole families even if only one member of the family owned a Bible. This type of controlled authority will be the way of the world in the last seven years.

Learn the words of God and repent for your salvation. Jesus lived before the world was created. He was born on this earth 2023 years ago in Bethlehem and will return to the earth at his second coming at the end of the seven year tribulation. In these last days I hope you spread the word of God and Jesus Christ so that more people will be saved.

CHAPTER 10

The Seven Mysteries

As we move forward, I need to explain for those who might not know what the seven mysteries are. The rapture is one of the seven mysteries revealed to the apostles and the church. Jesus spoke of the mysteries and told his disciples that this is why he spoke in parables. It was to reveal these mysteries to those who have been chosen by God to understand them. This chapter will also have some important information for the next chapter.

God wants us to have knowledge and understanding of his grace and mercy but not at the expense of people using his truth as a weapon. This is why we need to pray for the Holy Spirit to guide us and give us wisdom.

Here are some Bible verses about the seven mysteries that Jesus spoke of and told his disciples:

Matthew 13:9-11

Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10

And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables?

11

He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

The Mystery of the Body of Christ

Ephesians 3:4-9

Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:

Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power.

Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

This mystery should not be overlooked for those who read it. In verse 6 he speaks about the body of Christ as the same with all the Gentiles, which means we should not be divided and have denominations. We who follow Jesus are all one with him and we should not divide ourselves from his teaching. So many religions speak and teach of things that are not from God's word. I will give you an example here of why we should only listen to Jesus and God the Father.

There are two men walking on the same street going towards each other. One man is in a big rush and feels very bad for the sins he has committed. He is trying to call friends or family so he can talk to somebody. The first man sees in his sight the second man walking towards him and recognises him. He calls out to him and says,

"Help me, I must confess my sins. I must ask for forgiveness."

The second man says,

"I do not have the power to forgive sin, only Jesus Christ and God Almighty have that power."

The first man is frustrated and says he will go to church the following day and speak to the priest to confess his sins. The second man stops him and says,

"Wait, why would you do that? Why would you go to a priest and ask for forgiveness? By all means go to church and pray to God and worship him but do not go to confess your sins, they do not have the power or ability to forgive your sins, only God does. You need to speak with our Father in heaven and ask him for forgiveness because he is the only one who can give you salvation."

The first man thought long and hard about what the second man said and started reading more of his Bible every day. He started to realise that he had been wrong for so many years and wanted to repent of his old ways.

The body of Christ is one and we should be one following Jesus Christ.

The Mystery of the Divine Indwelling

Colossians 1:26-28

26

Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27

To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

This mystery means that Christ is inside a saved person and that they will walk with him in the kingdom of God. This can't be explained of how Jesus is indwelling in all believers for he is just one man, but that enlightenment will be revealed to those who listen and understand this mystery.

The Mystery of Godliness

Timothy 3:16

16

And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

This verse shows you the deity of Jesus Christ and how he was manifested in the flesh to die for our sins. How this is possible, that is the mystery and only himself and God knows. He was born of a virgin and raised like a normal human boy and grew up to be a man. His new covenant to the people taught the practice to his followers to be baptised and be born again. Jesus himself was born again, on this earth as human flesh. This is why we today are baptised and born again in the name of Jesus Christ because he himself was born again but on the earth this time for us.

Jesus came to this earth to take away the sins of people and bring us the gospel. This is the mystery of Godliness.

The Mystery of Israel

Romans 11:25-29

25

For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

26

And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

27

For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28

As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

29

For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.

This mystery talks about the blindness of Israel and how God is not done with them just yet. God will restore them in their home land and at the end of the tribulation will convert them to their real Messiah Jesus. Israel was restored back in 1948 when they became a nation again. The years from Adam to Abraham were 1,948 years when God made a new covenant with his people.

This mystery will be fully revealed to the Israeli people in the seven year tribulation period. We need to pray for their souls and pray for their nation.

The Mystery of Iniquity

This a very important mystery for people, both now and in the tribulation period to understand.

It is the mystery of the Antichrist.

Great mystery surrounds this future world leader and who he is. The Bible however is very clear that he will rule all nations under the New World Order (NWO) and will have the power to persecute many if not all Christians and people that do not follow him.

Revelation 13:1

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

Daniel 9:27

27

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

This verse in Daniel tells us that the Antichrist will confirm a peace agreement with many nations for one week which is seven years. If you recall, earlier in the book I went through the seventy weeks of Daniel and the timeline that shows us that there is one week (7 years) still yet to be fulfilled.

Revelation 13:16-18

16

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

It can be very difficult these days with all the evil in the world to know what will be the mark and who the Antichrist is. One just has to take note of a man that everybody is following and worships. Who is the real person behind the scenes working on a peace deal with Israel and the Muslim people? There are currently only three countries in the world right now working on peace agreements with Israel.

That is Austria, France and America. I am not including here that the Pope has been talking a lot about world leaders and the need to unite and form a one world religion which is part of the beast system that all people will need to follow. I will be talking about the tribulation and what is going to happen in these final days later in the book.

The Mystery of Babylon

Revelation 17:3-8

3

So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

There is a lot here to unpack. This mystery is the great Babylon that went out and deceived the whole world. In verse 3 we read that the woman was sitting on a beast that had the names of Blasphemy which is the devil and Satan. In verse 7 the angel tells John he will explain the mystery of the woman and the beast and who they are. Now in verse 8 we can see that the beast is Satan which rose up out of the bottomless pit and was made into perdition.

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

2 Thessalonians 2:3

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

The Man of Sin and the Son of perdition are the Antichrist and Satan. He has been working to destroy God's people for thousands of years back from ancient times. This is the mystery of Babylon.

The Mystery of the Rapture

The rapture is one of the seven mysteries of the Bible. What is the rapture and when is the rapture? These questions are one of the most asked and talked about subjects in the Bible today.

Depending if you follow a denomination at your church or for your faith, this will determine if you believe that the rapture is real or not. The teachings of Paul to all the early churches was to not be divided in Christ and that we should follow what he taught the world and not what man has made up.

1 Corinthians 15:51-54

51

Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52

In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53

For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

54

So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

This is the last of the seven mysteries revealed to us through Paul and the disciples. It confirms that there will be a rapture at some point. I will go into more detail about it in the next chapter.

CHAPTER 11

When is the Rapture

The church today has so many different denominations and beliefs that people don't even realise they are following a man made doctrine that is not from Jesus Christ the Son of God. Denominations can divide the church of Christ in many ways and change the way people think of a certain topic in the Bible but I ask you all to stay with me through this chapter no matter what denomination you are because this information here is very useful to your salvation.

Let's delve into this controversial topic now shall we.

Whenever you hear somebody talking about the rapture, many people go straight to the name Darby. There's a belief that John Darby invented the concept of the rapture which is just plain false and wrong, and I will show you proof of that. The early church when Paul was still alive, all believed in the pre-tribulation rapture.

I will show you names of people that all wrote different texts back in 100 AD, 200 AD and 300 AD that reveal the rapture will happen before the tribulation. The teachings of Paul were that of a pre-tribulation rapture. When Saul was renamed to Paul from the Lord he was born again and made new. Paul persecuted hundreds of Jewish people and was punished for it. The Lord took away Paul's eye sight for three days and then was made new by the Lord. He was once blind and now he could see. He was chosen by Jesus to preach the good news to the world and minister his church. Paul revealed the rapture of believers to the church from one of the seven mysteries spoken of by the apostles and Jesus.

Here we have a few names of men that were followers of Paul and the early church. I suggest that you check out this book and see that many early Christians believed in a pre-tribulation rapture.

'The Rapture' by Ken Johnson

Those that believed in a pre-tribulation rapture:

Justin Martyr

Ireneus

Ephraim 373

If you're thinking right now that there's no mention of the rapture in the Bible, I will show you there is. The New Testament was written in Greek. All texts and writings were Greek and then translated to English and various other languages. In the Greek translations, the day of Christ is described as the rapture and the day of the Lord is the second coming of Jesus.

Philippians 2:16

Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

The following Bible verse uses a word to describe the rapture.

1 Thessalonians 4:17

17

Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Notice here that it says we will be “caught” up together with them in the clouds. The Greek word for caught is, Harpazo, which means to be snatched away or taken away. This gives us some more clear evidence that a rapture will occur at some point in time. There are only two people mentioned in the Bible that have been raptured and taken up to the Lord without actually dying and that is Enoch and Elijah.

24

And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

2 Kings 2:11

And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that, behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

It is not clear if Enoch and Elijah are definitely the two men who will be God’s witnesses, but many scholars believe that they are as mentioned in the book of Revelation, and considering that they’re the only two to be raptured without dying, it is a big possibility.

Revelation 11:3

And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

As I’ve already mentioned, Jesus spoke in many parables to the people and with his disciples. He told us that the end of days will be just like the days of Noah.

Matthew 24:37-39

37

But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38

For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark,

39

And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

In the days of Noah, people were very evil and sinful and disobedient to the laws of God. The world was a sinister place and full of iniquity.

And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

Jesus used this parable as an example to the people because he wanted to show that yes, God destroyed the world, but most important is that he saved his people out of it first. God spoke to Noah and told him to build an ark. He spent the next ninety eight years building the ark and was saved from the wrath of God. Another example of God saving his people before destruction, is the story of Sodom and Gomorrah. The two angels of the Lord came to Lot and his family to help them escape the city's destruction.

And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

This example and story of this city is what is happening right now with our world. The world is so sinister and evil that people do not even realise it. It has become the new normal in society to do what is bad and say it's good.

The true people of Jesus will not be like the world. We will not do what the world does and that's because we listen to Jesus' teachings and take a stand for what is true and right.

Many other verses in the Bible speak in parables and of stories that tell us that a rapture will be taking place in the future. One verse that is very obvious of our Lord saving us from wrath is in Thessalonians.

1 Thessalonians 5:9

For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

Previously in this chapter, Paul is speaking of the tribulation and why we, the believers in Christ do not need to know the time concerning the second coming of Jesus because we will not be here. We will be raptured out already.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

Before the tribulation God will save people from his wrath and will rapture us out of this world before the judgement. We must seek the Lord for wisdom and salvation for the things that are about to come. I pray every day for strength, grace and wisdom to know what is happening in the world and how to understand it in biblical terms. There are so many things happening right now that people fail to really acknowledge. As I write this book, there are three countries on the northern side of Israel that are all mentioned in the book of Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39, talking about the battle of Gog and Magog. Prophecy is being fulfilled very quickly in these last days and I encourage you all to keep your eyes and ears open for world news. The Lord speaks of staying awake and aware.

This is not however a literal meaning of staying awake, but a spiritual meaning that we need to stay close to God and Jesus Christ, and be aware of the destructive forces at work in the world.

Jesus spoke in parables to explain to those awake of the events which must come to pass.

To those not awake, they will not understand the stories. For example, in the book of Matthew, he tells of a very important story that people need to be aware of and that if you were not ready and prepared for the rapture, you will miss it.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.

And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10

And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

11

12

But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

The metaphorical meaning behind this story is one of great importance to the church of Christ. He wants all of us to stay close to him and his word and not stray away from truth of the Bible. I see so many Christians today that believe in false teachings and false idols and don't even go to the word of God in their Bible for answers. It is not easy learning the Bible and all it's meanings but with help from the holy spirit it can be done.

The time of the tribulation will not be for the church of Jesus.

To explain this I will go more in-depth as to who will be raptured out before the tribulation starts. The concept of the rapture is for the church and taught by the church follower.

Let me explain.

Jeremiah 30:7

Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.

This verse shows that the tribulation is a time of Israel's trouble, not the church. Jacob's name was changed by God to Israel.

And he said, Thy name shall be called no more Jacob, but Israel: for as a prince hast thou power with God and with men, and hast prevailed.

I'm not saying that no Jewish people will be saved during the rapture, they are God's people, but it is pretty clear that the final seven years is a time that God focuses his attention on Israel as a nation and his people to bring them to their true Messiah Jesus Christ. The nation of Israel and the Jewish people are still waiting for their Messiah to come along and redeem them. In these last days they will believe that their Messiah has come to fulfil the prophecies spoken of by the prophets. They will not realise at first who this man, this leader, truly is in the final days until it is almost too late. I ask everybody to pray for the nation of Israel and their people to see the truth and light of Jesus Christ.

With that being said, let's now examine when the rapture could be.

It is almost impossible to find the time of the rapture working from our timeline right now in 2020. We need to go forward to see when the second coming of Jesus will be and then work back seven years through the tribulation period.

Ok let's begin.

We know Jesus was born on Sivan/May/Jun 4 BC.

We also know that Jesus was baptised in 27 AD.

And we know Jesus was crucified in 31 AD.

There is a verse in Hosea that tells us some very big answers to these types of questions, for instance, when is the rapture or when is the second coming.

Hosea 6:1-3

Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

These verses take a little decoding, but with some investigating and studying 2 Peter we will have many big answers for our questions. Don't forget, the Bible is a puzzle and it can take years of study to work through all the scriptures.

2 Peter 3:8

Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,

And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:

Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

When verse 3 in Hosea says, "After two days he will revive us," and we see that Peter speaks of, "A day with the Lord is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day," it is not hard to see the connection here of when the Lord will return. One day is a thousand years, so when we say, "After two thousand years he will revive us," it means that the Lord will return 2000 years from when he was here the first time. The Lord will come back to earth from when he came the first time as the Messiah.

This topic can become quite complicated though when you ask if it's the time from when he was baptised as Messiah or the time of when he died on the cross. This is why there are two possible known timelines of Jesus' return.

So when did this 2000 years start counting you wonder?

The two possible timelines are from when he was baptised as the Messiah or when he died on the cross at Calvary. Earlier in the book we discovered that Jesus was baptised in the year 27 AD.

Since Jesus was born in Spring time in the month of Sivan/May/Jun, he would most definitely not have been baptised in winter, so we know that he was baptised either in late Summer or early in the Fall from the calendar seen earlier in the book.

The other possibility is from the year when Jesus was crucified in 31 AD. We know clearly he died in the month of Nisan/Mar/Apr and that he rose again on the third day.

When we start this 2000 years of his return at the year 27 AD we come to the year 2027. This will be 2000 years later from when he came as the Messiah.

Could this be the second coming of Christ in the year 2027?

If we start the count of 2000 years from when he died in 31 AD we would then come to the year 2031.

Could 2031 be the year of Jesus' second coming back to earth?

I personally believe that Jesus will return 2000 years later from the time he came as the Messiah the first time to earth.

Why do I think that this is the right timeline?

Let me show you some more very interesting things that happened three years ago, back in 2017. There are many people that talked about this topic, and even wrote books claiming the return of Jesus on this date. Just about all YouTube videos were of people predicting the rapture or Jesus' second coming back on September 23rd 2017. On this day, the sun was moving through the constellation Virgo, along with the moon at her feet. Additionally, Jupiter was also in Virgo, while the planets Mars, Venus, and Mercury were above her in the constellation Leo, making up the 12 stars talked about in Revelation chapter 12. That date has come and gone and everybody is left wondering where they went wrong with their predictions and what the signs in the heavens meant.

Well, I'm here to tell you that that sign was a warning to the world.

It was a sign to repent.

It was a sign for future events that will take place, and that we must turn to the Lord right away.

The day that this sign in the stars fell on was a Jewish holiday of repentance. The holiday was Shabbat Shuva which occurs on the tens days between Rosh Hashanah and YomKippur.

It falls on the Sabbath day (which is the seventh day Saturday) of the week and is translated to mean "Return."

God is warning his people to return to him and repent before the great judgement comes.

If we look back on the timeline I have suggested for the second coming of Jesus in 2027 and then we look at this date of September 23rd 2017, then that means he is giving people ten years to repent and believe in him. Ten years seems like a long time to give people to believe, but we have seen throughout history that people don't listen unless they are forced to and that's what the final seven years will bring people to. God will speak to the world and force everyone to know that he is the one true and almighty God.

There is another way to look at this 2017 sign in the stars. It is still a warning sign for people to repent but it could also be a sign of the rapture of believers in Jesus. The alignment of all these stars and planets only happens once every 7000 years. Yes, 7000 years! It has happened now in the year 2017 or more actually 6020. So the only time this event has ever happened before was three years ago in 2017. Because God created the earth and heavens and stars 6020 years ago in the month of Nisan/Mar/Apr, this event has never happened before until 2017 (6017). This date however could be a three year or six year warning for people to repent. We have calculated that the final seven years could take place from 2020 to 2027 or from sometime in 2024 to 2031.

If it is a three year or six year warning, it means the rapture would need to take place this year in 2020 or either in 2024. I'm not saying that this is the right timeline but I pray that this will help you all to understand by reading this that time is running out and things are going to change very quickly, and drastically, for planet earth.

There is another very important topic I need to discuss here before I close this chapter and that is how do we know it is the real rapture, and what will happen directly after the rapture takes place. Many people believe that the governments and powers that be of this world are going to create a manufactured rapture. They are going to try and take people from their homes and say on the news that some other dimensional being has taken them. This could very well happen, so how do we know what's real and what's not?

The problem with this is we won't know until it happens and if you know for 100% that you are one of God's chosen people and you're left behind, well then it might not be the real rapture. There is technology to be able to do this to millions of people around the world but unless you know for a fact that what they say on the news is accurate and you know that millions of people just disappeared, then it will be hard to perceive what is real and what is not.

Whenever this event does eventually take place there will be another story that will come out as it happens. There has been a large increase in UFO (unidentified flying object) sightings around the world in the last six months.

You may say that this has been happening for years, and yes it has, but not to the extent of what we are seeing today. Now for those who don't know, aliens are demons. Be sure to really really that again. Aliens are in fact demons. We are told to believe that aliens are from another universe, other planets, but this is simply not true.

Aliens are in fact the descendants of the fallen angels and spirits of the devils Anunnaki, from the Bible.

And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

That the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose.

Jude 1:6

And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day.

For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;

Job 4:18

Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:

Over the years people have documented numerous times of ancient looking creatures or flying objects and even abductions from some type of being. Many reports have come out about Antarctica and what could be underneath all that ice. Back in the 1930s a certain German leader began to do explorations there in order to find out about these myths. Other military and naval leaders also went there exploring such areas to find answers of ancient life and one of those leaders was Admiral Richard Bird.

He was sent there on an operation called “Highjump”, which was to seek out and destroy any Nazi bases or information that had been left from World War 2.

In his diary he speaks of a time in 1947 when he was flying over an area in Antarctica and his ship was taken under control of something and forced to land in a place inside the earth.

He was then taken to a place where he met with some type of being and was told that because humans had used nuclear bombs, they would now have to intervene with humanity. He was given instructions of what to do and speak to governments of the world but apparently nobody believed him, or did they?

You might be thinking this story sounds crazy and made up but I will tell you some other very strange things about what our world leaders are doing in Antarctica.

With a little research, it's not hard to find a list of some of the most high profile people that have reportedly visited Antarctica. This is just a few that we know of.

President Barack Obama sends VP Joe Biden on a special mission to Antarctica

John Kerry visits Antarctica
11/15/16

Russian President Vladimir Putin to visit Antarctica
1/18/17

Russian Pope Patriarch Kirill visits Antarctica
2016

You might say that these people may have been visiting this place because there is a research climate station in a number of places throughout the Peninsula but how do we really know for sure? If Admiral Bird's report is accurate, then there is something else going on underneath that ice than just penguins waddling around.

My point of all this is that when the rapture happens and the world is in chaos, the world powers will say that everybody was taken by aliens. They will say that they have come to either take us away or to wage war against us. This will be one of the great deceptions of the tribulation. Everywhere in society we have seen movies, TV shows, books, and news reports of UFO activity and aliens coming to earth in order to program our brains to think that they could be out in the universe somewhere. The truth is that they are already here and have been living inside the earth for many years.

This is why it is so important to stay aware of things happening in the world around us and ask our Lord and saviour to guide us where we need to be.

Either way we look at the rapture, the Lord will return on one of these two timelines and I pray for people to start repenting now and coming to the Lord for their salvation and eternal life. Jesus said, "I go to prepare a place for you" and he was not just speaking to the disciples but to the church as well.

CHAPTER 12

The Final Seven Years

In this final chapter I will go through some verses from the book of Revelation and discuss what has already happened and what will happen in the seven year tribulation. Throughout the book of Revelation the number seven is used to refer to perfection or completion. This is one of the reasons why I think that the Lord will return very soon. When we look at all the verses below that talk about the number seven for the final judgements, it is hard to deny that this number is for completion.

Revelation 1:20

20

The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

Revelation 4:5

And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.

Revelation 5:12

Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

Notice in the last verse I've shown you that there are seven things the Lamb of God received when he was found worthy. Power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessings. In the book of Revelation there are seven seals to open that are the judgements to the world, and there are also seven trumpets from the seven angels that must sound before the end of time and seven vials which hold the seven last plagues of God's wrath.

All of this shows us that the number seven is a number for completing the world's purpose. Much like the year we are actually living in. We think we live in the year 2020 but in fact it is 6020. God created the earth and everything in six days, and the seventh he rested. Our seventh day of rest will be with the Lord Jesus Christ and the angels up in heaven forever.

Many people read the book of Revelation and are confused by the timeline of how it is written. This book tells us a number of events that have occurred already in our history and what is to come for the future. It combines all the Bible into one book and explains how things came to be for the forces of heaven and hell. You can simply read the book as it is but if you want a deeper understanding then it can be very daunting to try and find answers. I will provide some of those answers for you now.

The book of Revelation was written by John, one of the twelve disciples. It was said that he was one of the disciples that loved Jesus the most and was persecuted for it. While he was cast out to the island Patmos, Jesus appeared to him to show him the past, present and future events. First things first, I will show you again how we get the seven years for the tribulation period and then I will show you verses that connect the dots with it. In Bible prophecy most, if not all verses and texts that speak of days or weeks it actually refers to years.

Earlier in the book I talked about Daniel's prophecy in the latter days. In chapter 9 he was told by the angel Gabriel that,
"Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people."

$$70 \times 7 = 490$$

"From the time going forth to rebuild Jerusalem to Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, threescore and two weeks."

$$7 \times 7 = 49$$

$$62 \times 7 = 434$$

$$62 + 7 = 69$$

$$70 - 69 = 1 \text{ week remaining}$$

$$49 + 434 = 483 \text{ weeks (years)}$$

Remember the timeline of the decree in the book of Ezra, and the time of when Jesus was anointed as the Messiah in 27 AD, 483 years after the decree?

The decree in Ezra 7:13 to the baptism of Jesus in Luke 3:21-22 is 457 BC to 27 AD.

This timeline leaves us with one week period remaining which is the final seven years.

$$434 + 49 = 483 \text{ years fulfilled by Jesus}$$

$$490 - 483 = 7 \text{ years for the Tribulation}$$

Now there are many scriptures in the Bible with double meanings, metaphors and subliminal messages. As we go through it, I will show you the real meanings behind some of these verses.

We know that Jesus was the Messiah and he died for our sins but in some of these verses in Daniel it is not just talking about Jesus the Messiah but also the Antichrist messiah that will come along in the last seven years of the tribulation.

Daniel 9:27

27

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

This covenant spoken of will be a seven year peace plan that will go out to Israel and all the Palestinian and Arab nations. It will be confirmed by the false messiah, the Antichrist, and he will bring that peace to the Middle East for a short time.

The book of Revelation has many verses that tell us of a time when the beast (Antichrist) will be given power to reign for forty-two months, which is three and half years. This will be a time when Satan himself will rule the world with a one world government, one world religion and one world currency, and if you do not follow this beast system you will not be able to buy anything, sell anything or go anywhere. We are seeing this system already in China and other parts of the world.

The social credit score is what they call it. A system that tracks everything you do and say. You can be reported by other citizens if you jaywalk or if you had an alcoholic drink or even for making a bit of noise in your home. All these things and more will lower your credit score and you could potentially still not be able to buy anything or leave your home. This system will be the beast system that Satan has been working towards for thousands of years. Total control over all human life.

The time of the tribulation will be a very hard time for those who will not conform to this system but in the end God will reward you more than you can imagine if you stay close to him. The mark of the beast is both metaphorical and physical. The Bible speaks of people who have died for not taking the mark and for believing in Jesus Christ and God almighty but there has not always been technology like we have today to get this mark. This mark is also metaphorical in the sense that every single person who has ever lived on earth has made a choice to either follow the one true God or follow something else.

There are only two roads to take, God's road or the other road.

The physical mark of the beast, in my opinion will be some type of technology that everybody will have to use in order to buy and sell. In Sweden there has already been human trials of people being implanted with an RFID (Radio Frequency Identification) chip in their hand. There are over 3 million people in the world that have already been inserted with this chips. The militaries have been doing this for the last forty years but we have not seen this in our society until now.

It is a troublesome time with all these things happening but if you stay close to God, you will be ok. Remember, God wins the battle in the end. The future was already known and written by him before the world was created.

Now let's get into some of the scriptures here and start decoding the last days.

We have already worked out in the previous chapters of this book that the tribulation could either be from the time we are in right now to seven years in the future or there is still another ten years before the second coming of Jesus. As I have said, I personally believe that the Lord will return within the next seven years. This will be 2000 years from when he was baptised and anointed as the Messiah. He came to the world as the lamb of God but when he returns he will come to judge and make war as a lion.

In Revelation chapter 4, John is raptured up to heaven with an angel that will show him the visions of what's to come.

Revelation 4:1-2

After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

John was chosen by Jesus to see the things which must come to pass in the final days and to tell the world about them. In these last seven years for the people who are still here on earth, they will see asteroids, earthquakes, volcanos, solar storms, plagues, and a world in absolute chaos. People will say, "What type of God leaves people in a time like that," but I say to those people that God has given us all time to turn to him for salvation and unfortunately many people will still not choose to look to the heavens. I am praying that this book will help people realise that time is running out and it's time to repent and turn to Jesus.

Why would anyone deny eternal happiness in heaven with our creator?

Jesus himself spoke about the last days and what is to come.

Matthew 24:21-22, 29-30

21

For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22

And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

29

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30

And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

All of Matthew chapter 24, Jesus speaks about the final days and what will happen, so if you are reading your Bible I encourage you to read all of this chapter. When we look at these verses we can see many things. Jesus is speaking about his second coming at the end of the tribulation but also points out that the days will be shortened for the elect. When Jesus says, "For the elect's sake those days will be shortened," it is because the elect are God's chosen people to be taken at the rapture. The days will be shortened because we will not be going through the last seven years of the tribulation.

Sadly many people will have to go through the judgement period of God and witness all these things but they can still be saved. Stay close to God and pray.

And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

Jesus spoke of this time when people would need to endure to the end to be saved and that is what the tribulation will be like. You will need to either survive until the end of the tribulation period without taking the mark or following the beast system, or you will be persecuted for believing in the real Jesus Christ.

Jesus is also talking about what the world will be like at his second coming, "The sun shall be darkened, and the moon will not give her light." These words paint a very scary picture if you really think about how the sun and moon interact with planet earth and how our oceans and plant life work in harmony.

In the final book of the Bible we see more evidence of what Jesus spoke about.

Revelation 8:12

And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

The world at this time will be like nothing anybody has even seen before. If you know a little about the moon you will know that scientists have said that if the moon was just a few miles closer to planet earth, we would all be seeing tidal waves, earthquakes, and animal and human life change rapidly. And if the sun will not shine on a third part of the earth, well that's a pretty bad day for our planet. People will say that there is no way that this could happen in the next ten years or next seven but it would only take one event to throw nature off its course and everything would change.

I see so many people preparing for the end of days by buying underground bunkers and stocking up on food and water, and that is all great, I pray many more will prepare but I'm not seeing many people prepare spiritually of the things coming upon the earth. The evil that is going to come upon this earth will not just be dark and sinful, but also incredibly deceptive that people will not even realise who they are actually supporting and following. The Antichrist will not come along in a red suit with two horns on his head saying, "Here I am, everybody worship me now." No, he will proclaim to be God, and the king of the Jews, and will have many answers to the worlds problems. And the more the world goes into chaos, the closer it is that the man of perdition (Satan) comes into power. When I get into the verses here I will show you how there is an unholy trinity that is the false prophet, the beast and the dragon.

Essentially the false prophet is a man that is teaching a false doctrine around the world. He is leading people to hell and not heaven. The beast is the Antichrist who will do great things and misguide many people, but the dragon which is Satan will rule the world and perform great miracles and force everybody to receive the mark of the beast. As you will see in these Bible verses, the dragon (Satan) gives power to the beast.

All are three, but all are connected like the spirit is as one:

False Prophet.
The Beast is the Antichrist and the Man of Sin.
Satan is the Dragon and Perdition.

Much like the trinity of God, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

Even though the second beast is the Antichrist, the spirit of the Antichrist is in all three and throughout the world.

1 John 2:17-18

17

And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18

Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, even now are there many Antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time.

When trying to study your Bible and work out who this man will be and what are his characteristics, it can be quite challenging. In earlier chapters of Daniel it speaks of this beast having many riches and will be a great economist. He will be very ambitious and controlling and he will also speak great words of blasphemy against God. There is a very important verse spoken of that is changed from the original texts.

Daniel 11:37

37

Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

This verse for some reason was changed from the original texts. It claims that this man (Antichrist) will not desire women which means he is possibly homosexual or bisexual. In the first translations however it says, "But his lust shall be upon women."

It does not say that this man will be a homosexual but rather he will lust after women. Lusting after someone is still a sin against God and his commandments.

There are many men nowadays that lust after women, but there are not many in politics, that we know of, with a sinister lust of women. There is all but just a handful of world leaders that have a track record of sleeping around and acting like a playboy.

The beast (Antichrist) will not come along cursing God and all that Jesus did but rather proclaim to be a man of God exalting himself above others. This is where a lot of research and study come into play because you need to check the original transcripts to make sure whatever Bible you're reading is correct.

The King James version is meant to be the closest to the original text translated back in 1611, but the Tyndale, Coverdale, Matthew and Great Bible all have the first translations. Many words after that were changed to meet an agenda from the Catholic Churches. For example, the seventh day is in fact a Saturday not a Sunday and in this next verse it has yet again been changed to meet the agenda of the Roman church.

Revelation 1:10

I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet.

You might ask what is wrong with that verse from John, but in the first translations it says, "I was in the spirit on a Sunday."

You may be thinking that the Sunday is the Lord's day, but it actually isn't. The Romans changed the days and months so the seventh day is actually a Saturday. That is the Lord's day. Sunday is really the first day of the week. When we see that this verse says on the Lords day and read the original translations, we know that they have changed words to meet their false doctrine.

So we know that there are some Bible verses that have been changed from the first translations over five hundred years ago, but how do we find out who this Antichrist man is? We know he will be the great deceiver and will conquer the nations, and this next Bible verse will tell us a lot about who this man is and what happens.

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition.

I would like to point out something important here in this verse. Notice carefully it says, "The man of sin be revealed, THE SON of Perdition." The man of sin is the Antichrist who is the son of perdition, and perdition is Satan. The Bible reveals many names of different spirits or people in scriptures and Satan has quite a few. Throughout the Bible we see numbers and timelines of what's happening and when. In Revelation chapter 13 we see just how long the Antichrist and Satan himself will reign for.

And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.

Now there is a word in one of these sentences that a lot of people go to for knowledge and understanding of how long this beast is in power for, but it is not correct. If you have paid very close attention to verse five you will see one word that should stand out. "Power was given unto him to CONTINUE forty and two months." This word continue is NOT in the original texts translated from William Tyndale and John Rogers. These two men are some of the many that inspired James Charles Stuart VI to write the King James Bible. However, some words are different in the King James to the original texts.

This beast spoken of in Revelation, has power in some part of the world either before or during the tribulation and is given that power for forty two months, which is three and half years. This man will be killed by something or someone and will come back to life. The Bible tells us that he will be damaged on his right arm and right side of his face and eye. This is a reference to what God said to the serpent when he deceived Adam and Eve.

And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

After the Antichrist is risen from the dead, the second beast rises up out of the earth which is Satan himself.

Revelation 13:11-18

11

And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.

12

And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13

And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

14

And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live.

15

And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

16

And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

17

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

There are many different ways you can look at these verses and interpret who these two beasts are and if they are the same man. It speaks more about the first beast, the Antichrist, then it does about the dragon which is Satan.

Now if this is the same man, then he will want everybody to worship him when he comes back to life, but if these are two different men, then Satan will make everybody worship the first man (the beast) because he died and came back to life. Either way we look at it, Satan will be deceiving millions of people with his trickery. Most likely it will be the same man that is wounded to death and comes back to life claiming to be a god. Everything that Jesus did, Satan copies. Jesus died and rose again so Satan will try to deceive you with either a fake or real death, and then rise again back to life.

The dragon spoken of in verse 11 is in fact Satan and this is the start of Daniel's prophecy talking about the messiah (Satan) which will confirm a covenant with many. In verse 16 Satan will make everybody receive a mark in their hand or on their head to be able to live in society under the new world order.

Remember that in Daniel's prophecy he spoke of a covenant for one week, which is seven years?

Daniel 9:27

27

And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

I know I have already mentioned this verse, but it is so important for people to see what has been said in relation to Revelation 13. There will be an abomination set up somewhere in the holy land (Israel) that goes against God and his temple that will be a sign he is not the true messiah.

Matthew 24:15-18

15

When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16

Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains:

17

Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18

Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

Jesus spoke of this to the people of Judaea and to his disciples but it was for the latter days.

Satan will make an image of the beast and give life to that image for everybody to worship in the third temple. Many people do not realise that some of the third temple has already been built underground. It is only a small area but it is part of the third temple. The Jewish people have everything they need to build the whole temple. They have the plans, blueprints, building blocks and all structures ready to go for the construction of the whole third temple. It has been said that when they start building after the peace plan is put in place, they can have the third temple built in just three to six months. This will be at the start of the tribulation, and the seven year peace plan will be set up by the Antichrist in order for the temple to be built.

Jesus spoke of a time that when the Jewish people see this abomination set up in the holy place that they should not return home or go anywhere but into the mountains to escape from their false messiah Satan.

Allow me to simplify it for you.

The beast will be in power for forty-two months (three and a half years) and will be wounded to death but that deadly wound will be healed. Satan will rise to power directly after the beast and this will most likely be half way through the seven year peace plan to the Israeli and all Palestinian people but also half way through the seven year tribulation. He will have the third temple built and keep peace in Israel for the first three and a half years. In the middle of this seven years Satan will also put up an image in the holy place that is an abomination to God. This will most likely be when he will go into the third temple and claim himself to be God. This is when the Jewish people realise that this is not their real messiah and they flee into the mountains to escape Satan.

So there is a man at this very moment deceiving many Christians, people and nations. He has been given his power from the dragon (Satan) and will have that power for seven years.

This man is the Antichrist, the man of sin, but he is also the dragon, perdition and Satan. Also in this time of the tribulation, God will send his two witnesses to prophesy with power for 1260 days. I mentioned earlier that I believe these are the two men who were raptured in the Bible. Elijah and Enoch, but many believe it to be Elijah and Moses.

And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.

And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.

And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.

And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.

And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.

Interpretations of these two witnesses are quite varied. Scholars believe that they are not actually here on earth in physical human form but rather it will be in a spiritual form. It can be interpreted that way but if you look at verse 9 we see that it speaks of people and nations that will see their bodies but will not move them to a grave. This means that it has to be a physical body that these two witnesses are in. The death of the two witnesses will happen at some point in the second half of the tribulation.

When you see these things come to pass, know therefore the seventh angel is about to sound and the Lords return is very soon.

The tribulation will be a time of many troubles and great deception for the world. The future was written by God before the world was created, so you might ask then why do we need to go through all of this? Why does all this need to happen? God knows the past, present and future of all things. He knows all our thoughts and the choices we have made before we did them. He also gave us free will. The choice to choose him or Satan. We cannot understand God's will compared to our will, but he gave us all a choice to ask him for help and for salvation. The choices people make will have consequences and if people choose to follow the beast and the devil, then they will have to suffer the judgement of God.

Next I wanted to show you how the Bible tells us of the fall of Satan and how he came to be on earth before he starts to take over the nations.

Revelation 9:1-2

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.

And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

When people read these verses many things get missed. It tells us that, “A star (Satan) falls to the earth and to HIM was given a key to the bottomless pit.” Notice though how it says, “to the earth, and he opened the bottomless pit,” so this bottomless pit must be in the earth. It may not be a physical pit, it may be spiritual but in any case this pit is in the earth in some form. Reports from around the world today and hundreds of years ago say that people have witnessed supernatural phenomena, creatures and ghosts that seem like they are trapped here. It is scary to think that these supernatural beings could be from the bottomless pit spoken of here in Revelation 9.

As we continue through chapter 9 we see that there will also be some type of invasion or evil spirits that torture people on the earth for five months. These are creatures from the bottomless pit that Satan lets out into the earth.

And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads.

And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.

And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

And the shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10

And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.

11

And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.

12

One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13

And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14

Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates.

15

And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16

And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.

17

And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18

By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19

For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

20

And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

21

Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

In my opinion this event will occur just after the events of the rapture and all these creatures (fallen angels) will come up out of the earth to make war and torment people. During this time they will tell the world the chosen ones were taken by aliens and that we all need to unite as a one world government.

I know you're probably thinking, "WHAT, ALIENS?" Yes, but not the type of aliens we are all told about in movies, TV shows and books.

For these aliens are demons. Evil creatures.
They are the fallen angels.

Earlier in the book I talked about creatures inside the earth. These creatures here in this chapter are in fact the aliens/demons/fallen angels that were cast out of heaven at the start of Genesis six. People might argue that it says locusts come up out of the earth but, they are not literal locusts.

If you read these verses again you will see what they are wearing and how they are armoured up like the angels of heaven, but they are the fallen ones with their leader being Satan the fallen star.

How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!

It is so important for everybody to read and study the word of God so that you will not follow a false doctrine. We are living in the last days and seeing the Antichrist in power right now, making way for Lucifer to rule the world. It truly is a scary time.

As you read through this book I pray that the Holy Spirit is guiding you and showing you answers to what I've said. I have shown that if you study your Bible you can have questions answered through God, it just takes a little work, patience and belief.

Let's now briefly discuss other events that may occur in the final seven years. Everybody by now should have heard of the Four Horseman of the Apocalypse. The white, the red, the black and the pale horses. There is also seven seals, seven angels with trumpets and seven vials, and do not forget God's two witnesses that are given power over the world. All of this final judgement of the wicked is starting to take place around the world as you read this. You may not know it because news networks are told to hide it but there are monumental earthly events happening daily. Earthquakes are increasing every month, solar storms are hitting earth more rapidly, floods and storms are becoming more and more intense, animals, insects and bees are dying. The book of Revelation speaks of a time when people will be physically burnt from the sun when they go outside.

Revelation 16:8-9

And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

Planet earth is frequently getting hit with solar flares and high-energy particles causing auroras, but does science say that it could damage the ozone layer? Yes it could and it will. When a massive sun flare hurtles towards earth and hits us, it will cause a world wide black out of communications and power. It will destroy the ozone layers and then it will be extremely hot to be outside. Scientists have said that this is highly unlikely to happen but I wonder if they have read the Bible because it foretold of this event almost 2000 years ago. Something being unlikely means it is still possible.

Science has shown that the sun's activity is increasing and could release a mass solar flare towards earth but it's just a matter of time as to when. This will probably happen in the great tribulation period in the last three and a half years after the two witnesses have been killed and rise up to heaven. Because the two witnesses bodies would not be able to lay outside for three and a half days without burning up if this event happened first, so it must occur after these two man are killed.

There are numerous natural disasters that are going to occur in the final seven years but it is almost impossible to predict and understand when all these events will take place. You could spend hours upon hours looking through scripture and finding all the many connections in the different books of the Bible. It is just a matter of connecting the dots and navigating your way through the wonderful maze that is the Bible.

As we come to the end of this book I will leave you with one last vital teaching from God.

Jesus performed many miracles in his lifetime. He walked on water, cast out demons, raised people from the dead and even gave sight to people that were blind. One of these people that Jesus healed was a man blind from birth. Jesus came and spoke with him, and made clay, and placed it on the man's eyes. He told the man to go to the water and wash the clay off and you will receive your sight. The man did so according to what Jesus said and the man could now see. The man told the people and the Pharisees what had happened and said,
"I was blind, now I see."

Jesus spoke these words to the people and said,
"For judgement I am come into this world, that they which see not might see."
There are so many people in the world today that are so spiritually blind they do not know what is really going on or where they are. God gave us the ability to see clearly through this world and the evil that lies within it, and all we have to do is turn to him. Don't be blind to the truth. Jesus is the truth.

Peter told us that, "One day is with the Lord as thousand years, and a thousand years as one day." We are in our sixth thousandth year of the world, the sixth day by God, and the millennial kingdom is our seventh day of rest and it is coming soon.

If you have been paying close attention in my book then you will know the possible timelines of when all these things will happen in the world. We have already been seeing some of it taking place right now but people are not awake or aware. Most people are too concerned with earthly things and the me, me, me mentality that they don't think about what's really happening and what's most important. The holy spirit though can guide you through these times and show you the truth, but it is up to you to ask Jesus for wisdom and salvation.

I hope the message I've presented here for you is to turn to God and repent of your sins. No matter how bad they are, God will forgive you if you truly accept him and Jesus Christ into your heart. We are living in a time that will be quite unbelievable to witness but remember it is also a time of great evil and deceit.

Jesus is the way, the truth and the life.

Grace be with all of you.

In the name of Jesus Christ

Amen
